Report of Science Association

Date: 17th Nov. 2022

The Inauguration of Science Association took place on Thursday at Samajshree Prashantdada Hiray Arts, Science and Commerce College, Nampur, run by Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir. Dr. U B Kadam, Principal of the College presided over the inaugural function while Dr. T. S. Savale, Head, Department of Chemistry, M. S. G. College, Malegaon-Camp, Malegaon inaugurated the program.

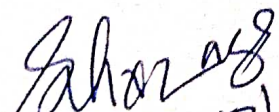

The program began by remembering the sacrifice made by Karmaveer Bhausaheb Hiray and Loknete Vyankatrao Hiray as well as by welcoming the dignitaries.

After that, Dr. Sunil Wagh, President of the Science Association and Head, Department of Chemistry, gave an introductory speech and introduced the guests to the audience. He explained the purpose of the introductory program, the features and functions of the Science Association. He made it clear that the purpose of the program is to inculcate a scientific attitude in the students, to make them think of science without inculcating superstitions in the society, and to inculcate science in the society.

In his inaugural address, Hon'ble Dr. T. S. Savale, who inaugurated the Science Association, said that the students should use science for the benefit of the society. He encouraged the students to do the research by telling stories of scientists. He further said that students should pay attention to their own mental and physical health along with studying science. He also explained the importance of nanotechnology to the students. He further instructed the students to make the most of the opportunities available to them by studying science.

The President of the program, Principal Kadam, in his presidential address said that students should work to remove superstitions from the society by studying science in depth.

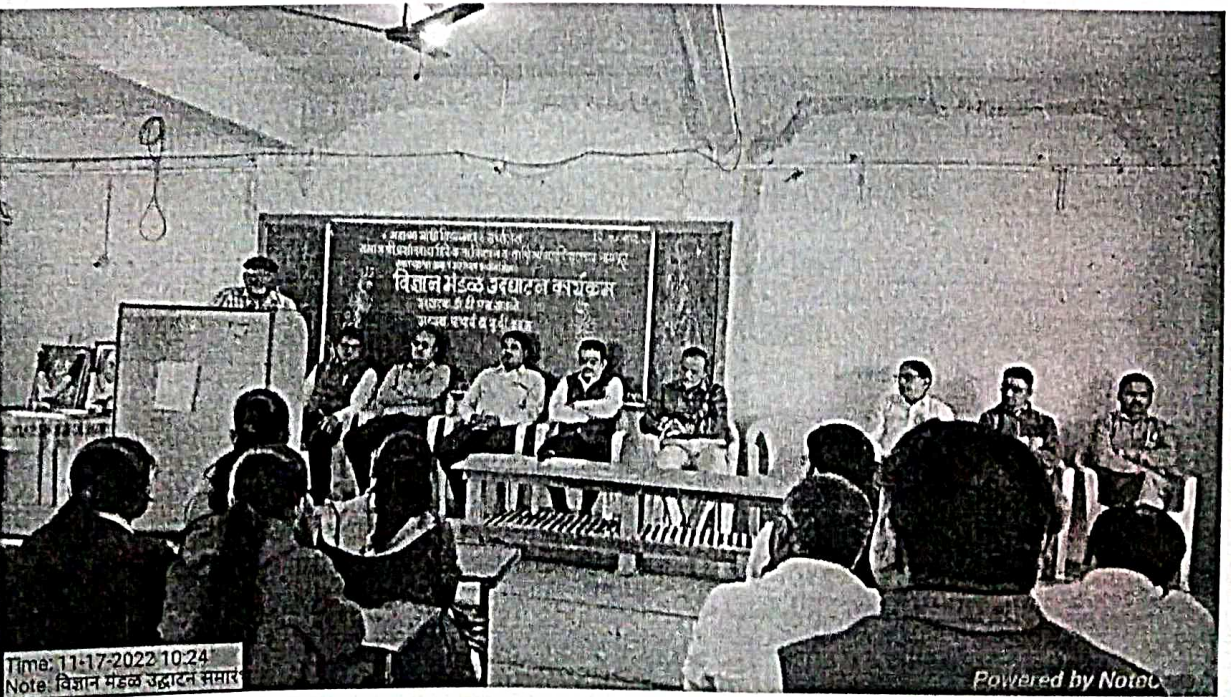

The program was compered by Professor K. K. Bachhav and the vote of thanks was given by Professor B. B. Bachhav. The program was proposed by Dr. S. G. Wagh. Similarly, the chief guest Dr. T. S. Savale was introduced by Prof. G. B. Yelname. This lecture was attended by Prof. Dr. M. D. Ahire, Educational Supervisor of the Senior College, Mr. D. M. Patil, Office Superintendent, Mr. Charudatt Khairnar, Prof. V. R.
